Be Among the 'Good Guys' Justo Caffi And Let's 'Go To the Dogs' Announces Expansion

"IT LOOKS BETTER THAN IT REALLY IS" would truly express the features of this 1956 GMC that the Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Team is seeking to replace with some of the money from their fund drive.

Normally when you hear the expression "the town is going to the dogs" it paints a somber picture. But not so in the case of the Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Team and the chairman for their ways and means committee, Lester Anthony.

Perhaps we should elucidate. The dogs in this instance are the "Bloodhound Banks" that have been placed in nearly all local stores to collect funds for the Search and Rescue Team, and it is hoped that the residents will make their way to them and drop in their pennies, dimes and dollars to help the team reach its goal. The goal is listed as $8,000 and will be used to replace worn-out and defective equipment, equip six new members, purchase at least two more communications radios and to replace the 1956 truck that has been run almost "into the ground."

Mr. Anthony points that that the truck, which was donated three years ago, has "served us faithfully with help from our group of do-it-yourself mechanics, but now it's less dangerous to scale the cliffs than to drive the truck out." The truck is a necessary item for equipment transport for a successful operation as the members' vehicles suffer too much damage in use for rescue work.

A recent $500 donation by William Scripts Kellogg was split among the four Mountain Rescue Association teams which were used in the big Baja California expedition and the $125 was put to good use by the local team but it does not put much of a dent in the team's needs.

A figure of a climber on a mountain will be used as a tally board in Kersting

Square to should the progress of the campaign and every cent will help the climber get closer to the peak.

By the action of the City Council April 17 through 23 has been designated "Search and Rescue Week" and several events slated to prime more interest in the campaign.

So far plans are to hold a fashion show on April 21, Mt. Wilson Trail Race on April 22, and at Rescue Demonstration on April 23 in Arcadia Wilderness Park.

Let's put a lot of action to back up that phrase "We're going to the dogs."

Rebuilding Army Spent 5,990 Man Hours On Trail

by BILL WARK

A little human war against the elements has been raging along the old Mt. Wilson Trail for several years. As "clouds return after the rain" so the trail rebuilding army returns. They clear slides, trim overhanging bushes and remove any boulders that might have tumbled onto the trail during a storm. And our "Pathway of Beauty" shimmers soft and safe in new day's sun.

Their weapons are not only picks and shovels, energy and muscle, but a sincere desire to give tremendous pleasure to many from all walks of life. They have been successful. The flower strewn trail is the most used in the San Gabriel mountains. Rescues are nil.

In two three hour periods,

"Everything's Coming Up Roses" is the theme. April 22 is the time; La Salle High School is the place for the Sierra Madre Rose Float Association's dance to begin another year of activity.

Dance Chairman Mrs. Edwin J. Cowan has announced the following chairmen: Mr. and Mrs. J. Bryce Tyler, decorations; Mrs. Jerry Carlton, refreshments; Mrs. Bob Brown, raffle prizes; Ross Tyree and Howard Glass, invitations and tickets; and Mrs. Frank Williams, entertainment.

General Chairman Ben McGee stated that the next general meeting will be an election of officers on May 2 in the City Council Chambers.

Tickets for the dance are now on sale. Call Mrs. Ross Tyree at 355-9618, or Mrs. Darwin Dennis at 355-6923.

Animal 'Pin' May Save Children

This summer may be a little happier time of year for many parents, thanks to the inventive genius of a man from Sierra Madre, Mr. Robert Licher.

He is the inventor of an inflatable life preserver, one of the most unique models ever devised. It looks much like a western tie. It's thin, only a quarter of an inch in diameter, fits around the child's neck, and has an animal pin on it which slips back and forth to get the preserver on and off the child. This little animal, which will come in various forms, according to what the child prefers, serves two important functions. First, it serves a psychological function and helps the child not to be afraid of the life preserver. Its main purpose is to inflate the life preserver. It's main purpose is to inflate the life preserver, which it does in 3 to 4 seconds after being completely submerged in water.

The simplicity and excellent quality of this preserver will bring down the market price. It'll make it useful, economical and easy to wear. Besides being small, light, no trouble to inflate because it's done automatically, it's also durable, made of mylar plastic, heat resistant and strong.

Mr. Licher hopes this invention will pass the tests and be ready to sell on the market this summer when it's so desperately needed. At present time the prototype is being made. The prototype is a model which will be tested to prove its durability and safety—in other words, to get the bugs worked out.

The patent was filed and given legally to Mr. Licher on March 14, 1967. He has worked for three and a half years on this preserver and

Pacific Telephone Shows Telefair On April 6, 7 & 8

Pacific Telephone's Telefair will arrive in Arcadia for a three day stay April 6, 7 and 8. The bright yellow, red and white tent full of telephone wonders will be on display in the parking lot of the West Arcadia Hub Shopping Center, Baldwin at Duarte Rd, near Nash's Department Store.

For the more game spirits there will be a computerized tic-tac-toe machine enabling them to match wits with an electronic professor who has yet to lose a game with his human opponents.

The family scientist will have a chance to explore the realms of communication by microwave radio and voices traveling on a beam of light.

Adding to the fair tempo, demonstration long distance telephone calls (within the continental United States) will be given away to lucky winners each 30 minutes.

It seems that this hostess at a children's party was chatting with one of the girls at the party and made the following statement: "My, your little brother is shy. He hasn't moved from that corner all afternoon."

"Oh, he's not shy," the little girl said. "He never has had a necktie on before and he thinks he's tied to something." So you see, that is the way it is with Peggy G. She is just shy because she has never worked for a guy as mean and ugly as I am. And that's the truth, so they keep telling me.

Of course, Peggy G. might be like the farmer's wife who had become mentally deranged. As they were carrying her out of the house in a straitjacket, the farmer remarked: "I sure don't know what got into her... she ain't been out of the kitchen in 25 years"... Maybe that's where John's been keeping Peggy, never can tell.

Well, seems that we are running headlong into summer and vacations, and I see by the Sierra Madre News that there is no one, absolutely no one, like VIP to help you plan that vacation. ## Building Permits Are Down

According to the report of the Sierra Madre license and building department the total valuation of the building permits issued for the first three months of the years show a marked drop over the same period of last year.

Building valuation for the three months period of 1967 show permits for $382,519, a drop of almost $150,000 over the $527,546 issued for the like period of 1966.

Total number of building permits issued for the month of March, 24, with valuation of $92,842; of this 3 single dwelling units were included with valuation of $76,500.

CARROT TOP
By R. Robert Evans

Although we showed an increase of 180 in population since the last report of October 1, 1966, we still dropped to 60th place among the 76 cities in the county.

The report, given every three months by the Los Angeles County Regional Planning Commission, shows that Sierra Madre now has a total population of 11,833, and was passed by San Dimas, which had an increase of 489 the past quarter.

Sierra Madre also has 4,388 dwelling units within its city limits, an increase of 12 since the last report.

With such population, it is really sad that our business figures are consistently on the down grade, and, of course, these are actual figures reported by the merchants themselves, and naturally reflect a decrease in the Sales Tax revenue, and this will require the taxpayers to make up the difference in other property taxes, increased licenses or by some method of increase in revenue to the City.

I really heard a good one the other day, and it was supposed to happen in the first grade of a school in Pasadena. It seems that this certain first-grade boy was leaving his classroom and tripped and hit his head on the wall.

The teacher immediately ran up to him and said: "Remember, Johnnie, big boys don't cry." And his reply was... "Darn right, they don't," he stated emphatically, "they sue!"

And you know, he came close to being right.

Seems that we are gradually settling down here at the News office, now we finally have our front office up to full staff with the addition of Peggy Goodall.

Now Peggy is a little shy, and as I told you last week, I have a problem of getting two for one call, since my wife's name is also Peggy. But anyway, Peggy G. being a little shy reminds me of another story...

It seems that this hostess at a children's party was chatting with one of the girls at the party and made the following statement: "My, your little brother is shy. He hasn't moved from that corner all afternoon."

"Oh, he's not shy," the little girl said. "He never has had a necktie on before and he thinks he's tied to something." So you see, that is the way it is with Peggy G. She is just shy because she has never worked for a guy as mean and ugly as I am. And that's the truth, so they keep telling me.

Woman's Club Meets On April 12

Sierra Madre Woman's Club meets Wednesday, April 12 at 11 a.m. in the clubhouse, 270 W. Sierra Madre Blvd.

At the morning session the nominating committee will present a slate of officers for the coming season and elections will be called for the next club meeting, on April 26. Also, at this time, Mrs. James R. Vine, Federation Extension Chairman for Verdugo District CFWC will talk on "Membership."

After luncheon, Mr. Leo Norton from Coast Federal Savings Association gives his lecture, "A Religious Challenge to Communism." Having been a president and division manager of one of the largest finance companies of the world, Mr. Norton, who is now in the personal department of Coast Federal, knows the set-up of the business world in America and how the Communists are working to undermine it.

Plans are underway in the club for the "Luncheon Is Served" day, April 19. Mrs. Raub McKim will take charge of the club's part of this event, which is put on by a supermarket and open to the public.

Those who have attended in former years remember with pleasure that there is a very nice luncheon at a nominal fee, prizes, and a chance to bring friends and play cards all afternoon, if so desired. The club members are selling tickets and those who do not contact them may reserve by calling 355-6677 or 355-9174, or 355-9512.

Mrs. Ross Tyree of 595 Hermosa, is getting ready for the up and coming Rose Parade of 1968. She's helping send the invitations for the dance the association is putting on. This year they hope to increase the membership and enlarge the program.

Look for your neighbor in church this Sunday.

Camp Fire Girls Hold Father-Daughter Banquet

Camp Fire Girls of Sierra-Hastings District held their annual father-daughter banquet last Friday night, March 31, at Don Benito School. Theme for the evening was "Celebrating Creative Arts" which provided many interesting and colorful table decorations. Most of the skits, songs and dances, also following the theme, were original and thoughtfully planned presentations by the various groups.

Master of ceremonies for the entertainment was Warren McElwain; Douglas Fraser, district chairman, welcomed and introduced guests. Mrs. Robert Swain's sixth graders from Eugene Field, O Han Pi, led the flag salute. The Horizon Club girls from Marshall Junior High, under the leadership of Mrs. Alfred Dunn were special guests and gave the blessing. These girls, Sandra Herrington, Laura Dunn, Debbie Ramaker and Camille Mead, all looked especially attractive in their white blazers and navy blue skirts, the official Horizon Club costume.

For all the girls and their dads, this was indeed a special occasion.

Mrs. Patricia H. Witter of 169 N. Mountain Trail, was telling me that her grandson, Stephen Witter has been in the hospital. This spunky 10 year old was in the Sierra Madre Community Hospital for an emergency operation following appendicitis. Stephen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Witter and the brother of Sharon 7 and Scott 5, who are all happy to have him home again. He is the great grandson of Mrs. Olive Hall who lives with Mrs. Patricia Witter.

Girl Scout Troop Tour Community Nursery School

Sally Pogue, Girl Scout Scribe for Cadette Troop 529, reports their meeting of March 27 as a "great success" toward their continuing work for their Child Care Badge.

An informal tour of our local Sierra Madre Community Nursery School, enabled them to become acquainted with the various styles of equipment and materials required for the development of the pre-school child.

Mrs. John Bush, teacher of the oldest group of children attending the school, gave an interesting resume of her education in preparation for a career in working with young children. She also related the history of the school, its functions and suggested many helpful ideas of toys and games that could be utilized while caring for young children.

The Cadettes who attended this meeting feel they have gained confidence in their ability to be better qualified as babysitters.

Sally and Cadette Debbie Edwards especially enjoyed the visit, as they are alum-

The Craft Group will meet on April 19 at the home of Mrs. Robert Olsen, 1906 Alta Oaks Drive, to continue their candlestick-making project.

Co-hostesses for the bridge group will be Mrs. R. P. Zimmerman and Mrs. Donald Bradley. The day is April 26, and the place is Glendale Savings & Loan in Arcadia.

New area residents joining Newcomers include Mrs. James Rogan from New York, Mrs. David Guthrie from New Jersey and Mrs. D. M. Tedford from Louisiana.

Stephanie Turner of Sierra Madre Becomes Bride of William L. Jester

MRS. WILLIAM LAURENCE JESTER

... nee Stephanie Turner

Miss Stephanie Turner became the bride of Mr. William Laurence Jester on March 18, at 8 p.m., in the Sierra Madre Congregational Church. Reverend Howell performed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Norman Turner of 265 Rancho Road, Sierra Madre. A former student of Pasadena High School, she is presently attending Lewis and Clark College in Portland, Oregon.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jester of Casilla 4918 Mira Flores, Lima, Peru. He is at present a student of Lewis and Clark College and holds the position of president of Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

The bride chose an empire styled, floor-length wedding gown with re-embroidered lace on satin and three-quarter length sleeves and was ivory in color. The matching veil mantilla was floor length, re-embroidered lace on neo. She carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis, gardenias and white baby roses.

Maid of honor was Melissa Turner, the bride's younger sister and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Walter Meader, Penny Peterson and Dana Smith. They were costumed in aqua blue, floor-length gowns with 3 tiers, boat necklines and kibouki sleeves. They carried cascade bouquets of daisies.

Best man was Walter Meader and the ushers were Jim Barnes, Bob Davidson, and Paul Parkhurst.

The bride's mother wore an aqua sheath with a beaded bodice and long sleeves. Her corsage was of white orchids.

The bridegroom's mother wore a pale green sheath with a beaded neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. Her corsage was also a white orchid.

Miss Sherrie Adam assisted at the reception which was held in the home of the bride's parents. A three-piece orchestra entertained the guests while they ate wedding cake and sipped champagne punch.

Capistrano Beach was the honeymoon destination. The bride's traveling costume was a light blue wool ensemble with a matching coat.

The newlyweds plan to make their future home in San Francisco.

Letters to the Editor

President Johnson proposes to give the old guys and gals 65 and over a better tax break if they continue in employment. A husband with an income of $10,000 would pay $528 less ... reduced from $1,114 to $586.

But who is working at that age? Business and professional men and women, justices of the Supreme Court, senators, congressmen, ambassadors? They might pay more. When the salary reaches $14,000 he would pay the same as the present tax but that would be $1,278 more than the $10,000 guy. And what a tax he would have to pay to have just $1,000 more, or $15,000. Just for that $1,000 he would pay $421 more. It just wouldn't be worthwhile to earn that $1,000. Much better to go fishin'. But you ain't heard nothing yet! Just wait until you hear how the President proposes to soak those retired and whose incomes reach a certain point ... Oh, well, never mind.

In these days of automation and leisure-orientation, who wants to work past 65, or even 60? Really, this stuff and nonsense about the retirement blues, retirement killing off the old men, just ain't so. Strange you never hear that about women. Only the poor, poor retired man who is pining himself away!

The compulsory retirement age of Los Angeles County employees is 70. And the results? Most of them retire long before they are 70. Many at 58, 60, 62. Most of those we knew who worked until 70 died within two years. Those who retired in the late 50's and early 60's are now in their mid-70s and are enjoying life. It is not retirement that kills 'em. It's working too long.

Now I don't believe the rocking chair ever killed anyone unless he leaned back too far, fell and broke his back. In every Mother Lode town we roamed around in, there were always some old-timers just a-sittin' and a-whittlin'. One cute little guy was 95. Had always lived there. I expressed astonishment. He said, "Ma'am, why not? Got to live somewhere. Might as well be here." And he said, "Ma'am, I ain't worked a day for nigh onto 50 year."

We took him back to his cabin. There was an old rocking chair on the front porch. Well, here's to early retirement and more and bigger and better rocking chairs. And don't let a so-called tax break fool you. If you don't get it one way you will another, and there's one thing for sure — taxes are something you will be paying and paying.

Library Film For April 10

The grim tale of the rise to power of a 16th-century Japanese power-hungry warlord is the subject of this month's Friends of the Sierra Madre Library museum film series to be shown on Monday, April 10, at 7:30 p.m., in Sierra Mesa School Cafeteria.

Akira Kurosawa, one of the great translators of Shakespeare's "Macbeth" into Japanese idiom to tell the universal story of the lust for power and glory and the subsequent result, as it happens in another civilization.

The Noh theater styling uses the "Macbeth" plot pattern to depict the gloomy tragedy set in rainy forests, swirling fog, and cavernous castles. The cast includes some of Japan's most distinguished actors, among them Toshiro Mifune, Isuzu Yamada and Takashi Shimura.

The 105-minute, black-and-white film has received a citation for excellence in direction, black-and-white cinematography, selection and use of real locations, and original musical score at the Boston International Film Festival, 1961.

The public is invited to attend.

You and Your Neighbor

by LYNNE RICHARDSON

John and Marion Nuccio of 1004 Singingwood Drive have a lot of news concerning their family. They gave Mrs. Nuccio's cousin, Mrs. Harry Boggio of Granada Hills a baby shower, March 30. The Boggios have two children, Ronnie 15 and Karen 12, and are expecting a third. It was a real live-it-up family get-together, with 12 aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and great-grandmothers. Mrs. Blanche Gadeschi, Mrs. Nuccio's mother, is going on a round-the-world cruise on April 7 and so this party served two purposes. Even the Nuccio children keep busy. Bobbie, the youngest broke his arm while skateboarding.

Velma Hutto of 110 Holdman and three other mothers have started a program that really sounds like a time saver. They are going to take turns having their children at each other's houses for the day. Each woman has one child that is too young for school, so they'll take turns having all four at their houses. The only draw back is that the children may not get along; if not, they'll have to try another plan with different playmates. If this works it'll enable the women to have at least three free days each week, when they can get everything done without any little ones under foot.

There sure are a lot of nice people in Sierra Madre. Of course, that goes without saying. Whenever I meet some, I like to give them special mention. John and Elouisa Velasquez of 199 N. Grove are like that. They have lived here in Sierra Madre since well before 1947, when they planted a cut from the famous Wistaria Vine in their back yard, and began to take root in Sierra Madre as deep as that vine has. They are generous, helpful people that give their neighbors a hand when they can. I'm sure everyone has come in contact with people like this and they sure brighten your life, don't they?

Tax Board Will Aid Taxpayers

Taxpayers having difficulty with their state income tax will be able to obtain advice in Pasadena when the Franchise Tax Board opens a temporary office there April 3 through 17. An auditor from the Franchise Tax Board's staff will be located at the Board of Equalization, 333 E. Walnut St., Pasadena, for the convenience of taxpayers in the area. The auditor will answer questions concerning state income tax problems, will assist taxpayers in preparing their returns, and will have a supply of state income tax forms available. He may be reached by telephone at 795-5566.

Anyone who earned $2,000 or more in single, or $4,000 or more in combined income if married, must file a California state income tax return. Deadline for filing the 1966 returns is April 17, 1967.

Here we are in April. The year has been shaping up pretty well, and then suddenly, bang, right between the eyes. You go to bed feeling right with the world and wake up owing Big Uncle half your fortune, you haven't already anted up with the loot. Dig deep it's a double feature. Property taxes and then that little summons from the "T" boys called income tax.

The loan sharks are sitting there with hands patting their fat stomachs just begging you to let them help you out of your misery and make your life a little easier — consolidating all your bills into one big debt I believe it's called.

Your other alternative is to go and shoot yourself if you can dig up the price of a gun. How about growing your own vegetables and fruit. As long as you're economizing, how about a nice fat milk cow. I could cut my throat when I think of all the dairy farmers that are spilling their milk into a ditch in order to force the price of milk even higher. Psychologically the timing is all wrong. Don't even want to hear of any more rises in the cost of living.

Always get kind of a primitive feeling at this time of the year rolls around. A desire to leave the electric blankets, tooth brushes, knives, skillets, stoves, freezers, all of those lovely little comforts that life and Good Housekeeping have convinced me are my just due. Leave them all behind and to carve my living out of the sod. All it takes to cure me of this annual malady is to go out and pull a few eaves, get out the check book, sulk for a few minutes and try to forget April!

Mrs. Walter Dorn and Mrs. Bill Botts were co-hostesses last week for a party honoring their niece, Miss Peggy Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Robinson of Sierra Madre. Peggy will become the bride of Mr. John Condit, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Condit on April 22 at the Wayfarer Chapel in Portu-gese Bend. After the wedding they will fly to Hawaii for their honeymoon. The party, a miscellaneous bridal shower, was held at the Dorn's Sierra Madre Villa home. The guests were, in addition to the bride, Mrs. Della Robinson and Mrs. Romaine Dorn, her grandmothers, Mrs. Minnie Arnold, her great grandmother, Mrs. Warren Dorn, Mrs. Dick Dorn, Mrs. Leo Condit, mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Ruby Smales, Mrs. Hazel Cortner, Mrs. Billie Mayfield, Mrs. Ethel Law, Mrs. Chet Barnes, Mrs. Jim Arnold, Mrs. Tom Arnold and her future daughter-in-law Sue, Mrs. Don Lampert, Mrs. Nancy Dorn, Miss Kathy Dorn, Mrs. Rick Strano.

Also Mrs. Bill Botts, Jr., Mrs. Frank Orr, Miss Kathy Coffman, Miss Carol in e Marr, Mrs. Wayne Hyde, Mrs. Hank Hoag, Mrs. Carl McDonald, Mrs. Marguerite McBride, Mrs. Elizabeth Capps, Mrs. Doug Krauter and Cheryl, Mrs. Amos Powell, Mrs. Jack Crain, Mrs. Red Robinson, Mrs. Phil Peterson, Mrs. Lorraine Miller, Mrs. Charles Church, Mrs. William Marr, and Mrs. Dwight Coffman.

Dr. and Mrs. Barklay Kamb of Fairpoint entertained recently at what is currently known as a "real swingin'" party. They have enjoyed the music of a band made up principally of Cal Tech physicists in years past and the instigator of the band left to go to Rutgers University. They always promised him that they would have a bang-up party for him if he ever came back for a visit.

He came back last week and they rounded up the old gang for a reunion. They rolled back the rugs and had an evening of real dancing. There was a bottomless punch bowl and plenty of cold cuts and snacks to re-energize the gang when they felt like a pause. The band, the "Tandem Accelerators," was headed up by the guest of honor on his trombone, namely Dr. Jorrit deBoer, Mr. Carey Davids was on the trumpet, Mr. Bob Stockstad played the guitar, Mr. Ron Chester played the saxophone, Mr. Laurie Graham was on the drums, and Dr. Charles Barnes tickled the ivories. Among those attending were Miss Judy Weller, Mrs.

Police Have Farewell Dinner For Chief Bale

One of the nicest going-away parties of the year was given last Thursday evening, March 30, to Mr. and Mrs. James Bale, former Chief of Police of Sierra Madre, who has accepted an appointment as Chief of Police of Whittier.

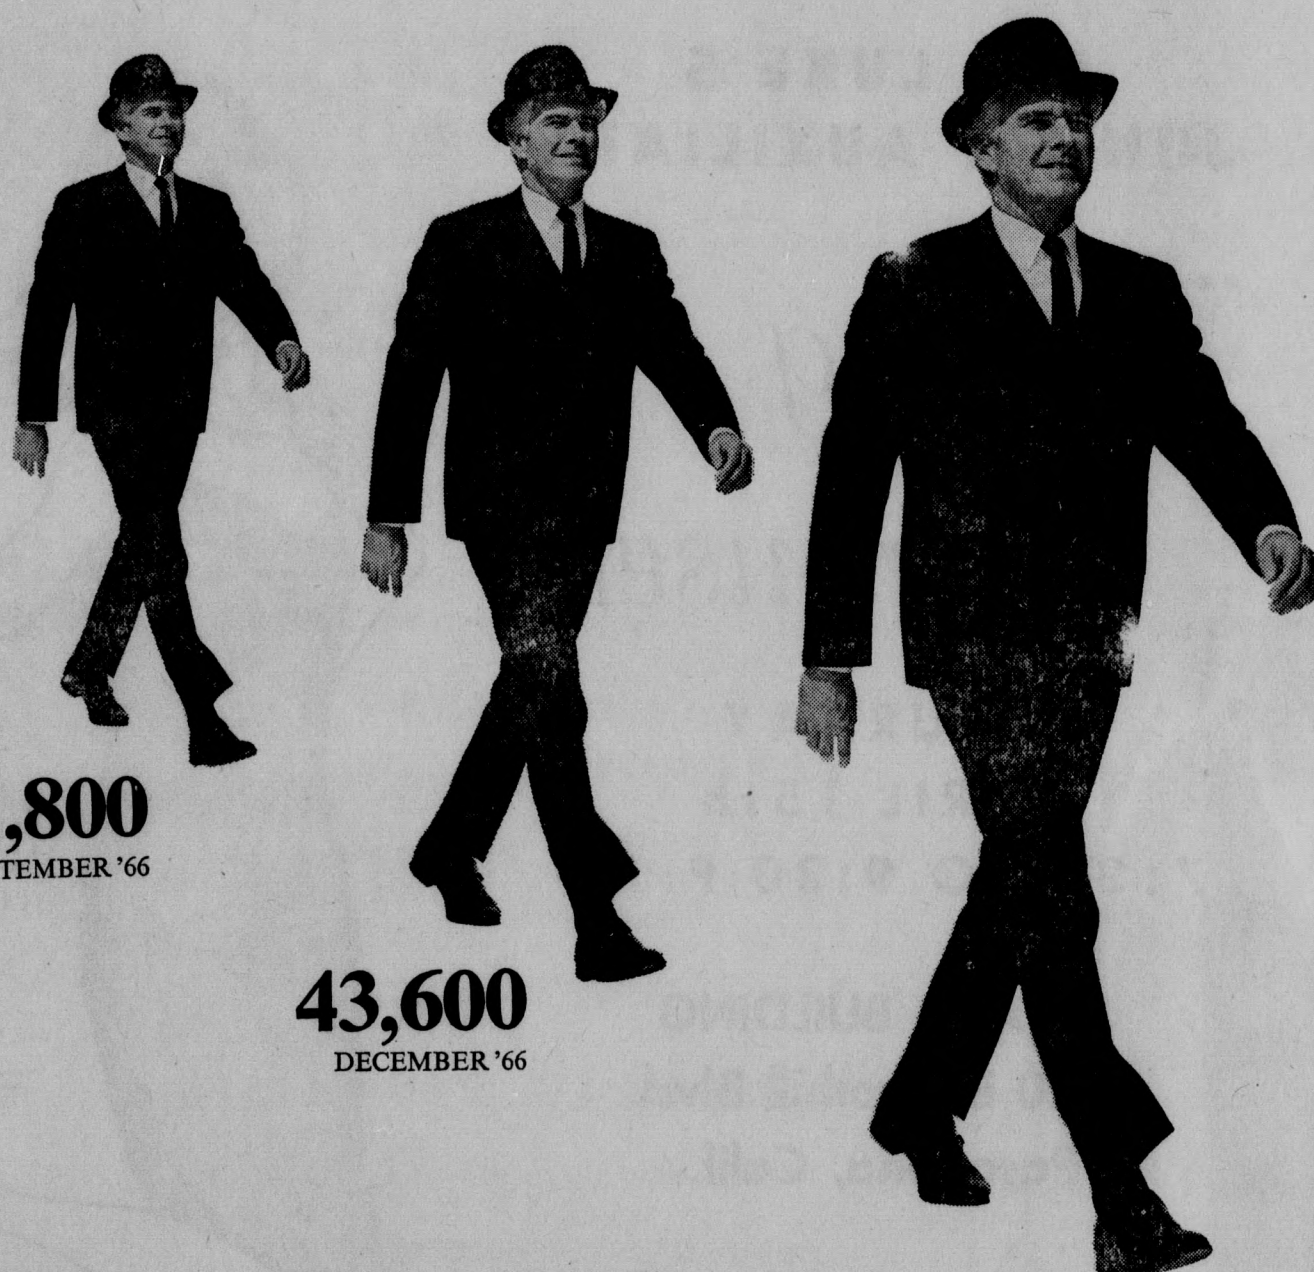

City employees, their husbands and wives gathered at the El Dorado Inn for a farewell dinner to a great couple.

Gifts presented Jim were: a new Chief of Police badge for Whittier, a beautiful pen and pencil set, a much-longed for large dictionary and a silver bullet, to add to his collection with the remark that others would soon arrive.

After a round of cocktails, a steak dinner was enjoyed by all, then a few parting words and the Bales were ready to go to Whittier. The farewell party was planned and executed by the members of the Police Department.

Bob Stockstad, Mrs. Ron Chesler, Mrs. Charles Barnes, Dr. and Mrs. Kunio Nagatani from Japan, Dr. John Patterson from Australia, Dr. and Mrs. John Behnke, Dr. and Mrs. Winkler, Dr. and Mrs. William Dreyer, Dr. and Mrs. Verne Shapiro, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dubinsky, Dr. and Mrs. Crellin Pauling, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Lauritsen, Dr. and Mrs. Ricardo Gomez, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Wayne, Dr. and Mrs. Bruce Murray, Dr. William Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lawrence, Dr. and Mrs. Peter Fay, Dr. and Mrs. Simon Shepherd from England, Dr. Alvin Tollestrup, Dr. and Mrs. Fred Zachariasen, Dr. and Mrs. Donald Clayton and Dr. and Mrs. Robert Meghreblian.

timers, Barney Decker, 67, Ambrose Zara 66, and Big Boyd Keith, 66, all have spent one full day a week for the last three years working on the trail. Keith, an original member of the Search and Rescue Team and now active in the Bethany Church, finds spiritual uplift as he works under an open sky, in the quiet forested hills between Orchard Camp and the Toll Road.

The young, clean cut, Mountaineers and Rangers of Sierra Madre have spent a total of 553 hours on the wilderness trail. But the largest help of all comes from the Mormon Boy Scouts and their leaders from the Wards of Whittier, South Gate and Fullerton. They come several times a year to spruce up the trail, top to bottom.

The Whittier and South Gate groups have spent some 5,432 hours on the trail, about equally divided. The largest amount of hours for a single group, goes to the Mormon Scouts of Fullerton with over 4100 hours alone. On Good Friday and Saturday they had some 27 men, who not only worked on the main trail above Orchard Camp, but completely polished up the heliport trail to Lookout Point.

We, of Sierra Madre, are indeed fortunate to have all of the volunteers who spend endless hours for our safe enjoyment. They are the lifeline of the Old Mt. Wilson Trail. And all for free.

You haven't seen the beauty of the Little Santa Antia Canyon until you reach the three-mile mark. It doesn't steal your heart away until you reach the Decker Springs, Orchard Camp country.

Palsy Fund Drive Is Now On

A county-wide goal of $350,000 has been set for the annual month of May door-bell-ringing drive for United Cerebral Palsy which will take place here on May 20, 21 and 22.

Proceeds of the "53 Minute March," so called because every 53 minutes a child is born with cerebral palsy, will benefit handicapped youngsters at seven centers in the county.

It is estimated that one of every 350 people in this community has a cerebral palsy as the result of a birth condition or an accident such as a car wreck.

"Let's Talk Dry Cleaning"

by Joseph Delgatto Sr.

Spring is here! With its changing weather, its promise of greenery and budding flowers, its hint of warm days under a bright sun, its lazy spring fever, the new season is well under way.

We've suggested before that this is a good time to bring in heavy blankets and bedspreads and draperies for spring cleaning. It's time to look over your winter clothing too. Topcoats and overcoats, heavy suits and woolens, all the clothes you might be planning to put away for the summer should always be cleaned first.

You've heard the slogan, "Don't put a cold in your pocket." Well, we might paraphrase that to say, "Don't put soiled, stained or wrinkled clothes in your closet." Dirt is the worst enemy your clothes have... so let us rout the enemy by cleaning the garments thoroughly before they're put away.

At the same time, you'll be bringing your spring and summer garments out of the chest or the closet. Before the really warm weather gets here to stay, let us freshen up this lightweight, clean it where necessary, press out the winter's creases.

Free mothproofing on everything we clean.

'PEPTONE'

By ALICE MANG

Warning! Mothers Cookies are pure narcotics. Once you have seen them and listened to their effects, you will know that there is no getting away; you will be addicted to their high class style and music. Teens do not need to take LSD to feel the warmth and color of their rhythm.

Ed Crenshaw, the Cookie with the voice, has written many songs, some of which include "On the Distant Horizon," "Midnight Train," "Down to the River" and "Don't Take Your Love Away." He loves to perform with the group in front of a big receptive audience and especially likes originality.

Drummer Milo Toole is the Cookie with the beat. He keeps the group's sound going and enjoys doing it. His nickname is Hey Man which was taken from a song by the same name that Mike wrote.

Cookie with real instrumental talent is Andy Hill. He mainly plays organ and rhythm guitar, but also play lead guitar, imitation silar, and many others.

Mike Mikulka, the writing Cookie, has turned out such numbers as the aforementioned "Hey Man" and "Too Many People."

Bass guitarist Bill Holmes is the Cookie with the feeling. He is 16 as are all the others except Ed who is 18. Bill also attends Pasadena High School as do all the others.

Favorite other groups of the boys include the Second Helping, the Plague, the Jazz Imperialists, and the Aldermen. As a matter of fact, Larry of the Aldermen thought of the name Mothers Cookies.

Funny routines are a part of their originality. They think them up before or after their practices three times a week. This all came about because they wanted to play at the Civic for the folk-rock festival. As a result, they did play there the night the Turtles did.

Jerry Graves is the manager of this group.

Mothers Cookies will be playing at the Sadie Hawkins Dance at PHS on April 14 and also at the Battle of the Bands in the near future. Don't miss seeing them when you get the chance. You will be so happy you did.

You and Your Neighbor

The Thomas family had the wildest time at the Colorado River when they took their usual Easter Week trip. They, and five other families, really lived it up. I'm sure even they couldn't tell the exact total of their party but here's a brief run-down. There were: Marvin and Lorene Thomas, Judy 17 and John 15, and their friends David Embree, Mary Nelson, and Ken Kaltschnee, all from Sierra Madre. Then Bud and Peg Walsworth and three kids from Altadena, Lloyd and Jean Spicer and their son from Altadena, "Bug" and Thelma Tyler and two sons from Torrance, Walt and Esther Brock and daughter and nephew from Glendora, and John and Jan Fitzer and five children from Long Beach. John and Peggy Goodall from Sierra Madre usually go, but couldn't this year; the others missed the Goodalls and hope they can make it next year. They water skied a lot, partied like crazy, the kids terrorized the camp by driving Hondas through it, and the adults took a cruise up the river to Needles, and all in all they had a real good time.

George Lovejoy is recovering from a knee operation he had on March 30. While carrying some equipment at work, he slipped and fell on his knee, thus causing the injury. He is braving the whole thing quite well his wife said, considering he doesn't like hospitals. Their daughter Terry goes with her mother to visit and cheer her father. They are looking forward to seeing their son, Harry, in May, when he will be out here from Montclair, New Jersey. He is a major in the Marine Corps and an expert skydiver. Son Patrick Allen is busy with his pharmaceutical work. He always wanted to be a pharmacist, his mother said, and he sure enjoys his work.

Samuel and Clara Leto of 327 N. Lima have been hosting two important guests at their home. They are Mrs. Leto's mother and sister, Mrs. Bernice Janciewicz and Mrs. Genie Bucholz, both from Chicago. They were very happy to be in Sierra Madre with all its spring flowers, warm sunshine, and greenery growing abundant.

ly. They have been through the worst winter in Chicago's history, and sure welcomed the warm change. They spent many hours strolling up and down the streets of our town to see the many lawns and gardens. Mrs. Leto said they arrived the 19th of March and stayed until the 30th, and enjoyed every minute. Her mother is 75 years old and they were sure glad she could make the trip.

Richard Stube is in the active Army now. He was in the reserves, but has now gone to Fort Dix, New Jersey to complete his boot camp and then on to Massachusetts where he will attend school and be trained for his specialty. He will get two weeks leave after boot camp and he hopes to either come home for a visit or visit his grandparents in Detroit. His parents, Norman and Helen Stube of 1375 Coronet, saw him off Sunday, April 2. They hope he can tour the eastern part of the country when he gets weekend leaves. That's a real good opportunity to see the world and I've noticed that's what most of the young men are trying to do when they are called into the services.

Daniel and Patricia Fletcher of 3655 Fairmeade had a visit from their daughter and her husband, Janice and Ed Grist from San Luis Obispo. They are both seniors at Cal Poly and hope to get their degrees real soon. Janice is majoring in elementary education and will graduate this June. Ed is majoring in business management and hopes to get his degree this coming December. He's hoping that he won't be drafted until then. When he is, they are hoping to get sent to Europe. They want to live over there and travel for a little while, and what better opportunity can they have! They came down to Sierra Madre on March 24 and stayed until the 27. Judy Fletcher has just made pom pom girl at Wilson. She competed for this honor with 300 other girls from which 18 were chosen. So this little miss is quite excited for the fall semester to start!

Your Opportunity To Tour Arboretum Sunday, April 9

A two-hour walking tour of special interest to home gardeners, landscape architects and those concerned with allergies will be conducted Sunday, April 9, through the Los Angeles State and County Arboretum in Arcadia by Dr. Leonid Enari, staff plant taxonomist.

The tour will cover the greenhouses, nursery, exotic plant collections and landscape exhibits at the Arboretum with Dr. Enari discussing the uses and cultivation of plants having esthetic value, and identifying and discussing those that are allergy-producing and poisonous.

In addition to getting expert answers to their questions, those who accompany Dr. Enari on the tour will find themselves in the company of a scientist whose interests and activities extend beyond the textbooks he has written and continues to write. As an expert in his field, Dr. Enari many times finds himself an important figure in the solution of a crime or medical emergency.

Recently he was called on to estimate the danger to a boy who had eaten fruit of the nightshade, a poisonous plant of many species, some lethal. Dr. Enari identified the plant in question as one of the less toxic kinds, thereby providing the doctors with a precise guide for treatment and, of course, allaying the fears of worried parents.

Groups will be limited to a convenient number. Other staff members of the Los Angeles County Department of Arboreta and Botanic Gardens, will be available should they be needed.

The gatehouse at the entrance of the Arboretum will serve as a meeting and waiting place for the tour which starts at 9 a.m.

H. Hutto Escapes Plane Crash

Harold Hutto of 110 Holdman Ave., of Sierra Madre had quite a scare on his most recent business trip back east.

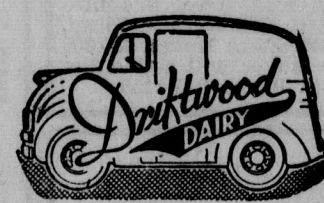

He spent the night in a motel in New Orleans on his way home to Sierra Madre. It was Thursday, March 30, a night many people won't forget.

A loud noise awakened him; he, and people in the surrounding rooms were being asked to leave the building immediately. For a long time he hadn't any idea what had crashed or what the emergency was exactly. Later he found out.

A Delta DC8 had crashed into the motel, about 100 feet from his room. It had killed the five crewman aboard and 13 other people. Nine of them were high school senior girls from a small town of Juda, Wisconsin.

Mr. Hutto called his wife, Velma, immediately, so she wouldn't be alarmed when she heard the news. He was quite shaken but otherwise fine, and very thankful to be safe.

Home loan money is available now.

And so is the home you want to own.

Here in the San Gabriel Valley, thousands of families last year reluctantly postponed their home-buying plans.

Tight money made mortgages hard to get. Kept builders from starting new houses. And drastically reduced the selection of available houses.

But it's a different year and a different story now. Home loan money is available now. You've seen it in the papers and you can confirm it with the lenders.

Is this a good time to buy? Consider these quick facts.

Building costs keep rising steadily. Experts say that they're likely to increase 20% in the next four years. In other words, a $20,000 house would cost you $24,000 by 1971.

Land costs are shooting up, too. Especially here in the San Gabriel Valley, where we've seen huge population increases. From 1950 to 1966, Valley cities and towns grew an average of over 100%. Now these communities are running low on good building sites.

The selection of existing houses to choose from is waaay now. And most houses, Realtors say, are realistically priced. But if, as many of them predict, a new buying boom is now getting underway, the buyer may not be in the driver's seat a year from now. Even with builders starting new houses now, it will be 18 months before a fresh supply comes on the market.

WHY NOT LOOK AROUND? All the facts seem to say that the longer you wait to buy a house, the more you'll pay. So shouldn't you see what's currently listed? Your San Gabriel Valley Realtor can help you. He knows the area. He has the answers to financing, tax and school questions. Why not give him a call now?

Law Enforcement Conference Sponsored By Woman's Civic League

With Lyman A. Garber, Beverly Hills author and attorney, as featured speaker, the Woman's Civic League in cooperation with the City of Pasadena will sponsor a "Community Conference on Law Enforcement," Wednesday, April 12, in the Shakespeare Clubhouse, 230 S. Los Robles Ave., Pasadena.

Mr. Garber, author of the book "Of Men and Not of Law," will address the luncheon meeting at noon on "Checks and Balances and Law Enforcement." Describing the United States as "the world's most truly revolutionary concept of government," Mr. Garber warns in his book that high court justices have been releasing "an ever swelling flood of decisions that undermine the foundations on which this nation is built."

Judge William E. Fox will open the Conference program at 9:30 a.m., with a talk on "The Challenge to the Community." The luncheon meeting at noon is by invitation only but Judge Fox's talk and the panels throughout the day are open to the public.

Morning panels which the public may attend will be as follows: 10 to 10:30 a.m., "Sharing of Responsibility for Law Enforcement," Mrs. George H. Zeitzius, former Administrator Pasadena City Schools, moderator; 11 to 11:30 a.m., "Increasing Crime Problems," Edward P. Essertier, editor Independent Star-News, moderator.

At 1:15 p.m., Fred G. Fimbres, chief of detectives for the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department, will address the conference on "Proposed Legislation."

An afternoon panel will take place as follows: 2 p.m. to 3 p.m., "Meeting the Challenge," Samuel H. Addis, Pasadena Police Chief, moderator. Participating in all panels will be leaders in the fields of law enforcement, public safety, juvenile protection and youth welfare.

The Conference will open at 9 a.m., with registration, followed by the Flag ceremony, led by Eagle Scouts. The welcoming speech and

PCC Girls Team Loses To PHS

The co-eds of Pasadena City College were beaten by the girls' gymnastic team from Pasadena High School. The challenge to PCC was met and lost to the challengers in a score of 69-19.

This well performing group of young girls included Miss Julie Atterbury of 119 N. Lima; Julie took two first place positions during the meet, one on the horizontal bar and one on the uneven parallel bars. This spunky little sophomore, who has been in gymnastics for about four years, was the second highest scorer.

The Pasadena High Girls' Gymnastic Teams will host the Southern California Amateur Athletic Union at their school this Saturday, April 8, at 9 p.m. This will feature the term from all over the entire Southern California area. The public is invited to attend.

introductions will be given by Mrs. Joseph H. Stout Jr., Civic League president, and chairman of the conference.

Christian Science Lesson-Sermon

"Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases; who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with loving kindness and tender mercies."

This verse from Psalms is the Golden Text of this week's Christian Science Lesson-Sermon, "Are Sin, Disease and Death Real?"

and savings accounts. By joining forces with Glendale Federal, Atlas Federal has increased its assets from $30 million to $786 million; its savings from $23 million to $640 million; its reserves from $1.7 million to $63 million, and its loans outstanding from $27 million to $671 million.

"From a practical standpoint all that has been changed is the name," said Reagan. "The friendly, personal services of our small association are now backed by the expanded services and $786 million in assets of Glendale Federal."

Congregational Sunday Sermon

Those in attendance at the 10 a.m. worship service at the Sierra Madre Congregational Church on Sunday, April 9, will hear Rev. David G. Howell's sermon, "Follow Me."

"All true Christianity," says Rev. Howell, "must be a response to the words of Jesus, 'Follow me.' The result of our response to that call must always be in the making of men."

Faith Lutheran Celebrates Good Shepherd Sunday

The annual Good Shepherd Sunday will be observed at Faith Lutheran Church, 845 Hastings Ranch Drive, with the celebration of Holy Communion. Rev. Armin Hesse's 10:30 pulpit message will be entitled "Do You Need Fear Insurance?"

At 1:15 on Sunday afternoon, membership teams of the congregation will take a religious survey of the homes in the Hastings Ranch area. Originally scheduled on March 12, this survey had to be postponed because of heavy rains. The object is to attempt to share the services of the church with the people of the community.

At 9:15 on Sunday morning, while the Sunday school departments are in session, the pastor will explain "The Order of Morning Service" to the members of the confirmation classes and Bible classes in the sanctuary. "Since we employ a liturgical form of service in the Lutheran Church," he states, "periodically an examination of the services proves helpful to worshippers."

On Monday evening at 7:30, Psychologist Norman Miller will present an illustrated lecture on "Christian Parent-Child Relations" in the parish hall, with the emphasis centering on "the husband-wife aspects in the family situation."

The Lutheran Women's Missionary League meets next Thursday morning for coffee at 9:30, Bible Study on Amos at 10, and business matters at 11 with Mrs. Suzanne Reed presiding. The ladies will visit at the Santa Anita Sanitarium on Friday at 1 p.m.

Other activities scheduled next week: Walther League zone hobo party at Emmaus-Alhambra on Sunday evening, area New Life Mission Committees meet at Emmaus-Alhambra on Tuesday at 7:30; Junior Choir and Explorer Scouts on Tuesday at 7:30; Midweek Bible Hour course on "A Survey of the New Testament," by Mr. Donald Hings on Wednesday at 7:30, followed by the Voting Assembly meeting at 8:30; and Adult Church-Membership Study Class and Senior Choir on Thursday at 8 p.m.

Robert Licher Invents Infatable Life Preserver

was very happy to see that patent.

The idea for this small, easy-to-inflate safety life preserver came to him when his sister-in-law lost two of her children to pool drownings, back in Wisconsin. He said he just wants to put something on the market which will cause such wasteful tragedies like this to decrease.

The inventor in this story is as fascinating as this invention. Mr. Licher was born and reared in Wisconsin. Eight years ago he and his wife, Jacqueline, came out to California and settled in Sierra Madre. They have five children: Coleen, 18; Doreen, 14; Kathleen, 13; Robert, 12; and David, 10. They reside at 170 N. Adams.

This talented man works in the city of Pasadena as a postman. He enjoys his route and is quite a popular person in the neighborhood he serves. He draws cartoons for the children while walking from house to house. They have titled him their "picture mailman;" to them he's a modern day Pied Piper.

He's also a free lance cartoonist and commercial artist. During the latest art festival he did pencil portraits of the patrons. The beautiful silk screens for St. Rita's Church was another of Mr. Licher's art work. He does church brochures and spot drawings, too. And if this isn't enough, he has invented other things before the life preserver.

The center head scribe, which is a sheet metal machinist tool, is his invention. To try to save time he invented a couple of jigs in fixtures which now are used by machinists. He also is the creator of the Wiper Diaper. It's a little gadget that covers windshield wipers when they aren't in use. This saves them from being eaten up by the smog and sun. One of the large car manufacturers is now using this device on its cars.

These inventions are quite a credit to this man, but the ultimate will be when he has the satisfaction of knowing that after years, time and money spent, his invention may save the lives of many, many children.

Creative Writing Departments Meet

The Poetry and Creative Writing Department of the Shakespeare Club will meet on Monday, April 17, at 11:30 a.m. in the Stratford House, according to Miss Florence L. Swindell, director.

Mrs. Herbert Hanger, hostess, will serve coffee and dessert. Miss Nettie Wicklund will present a paper on the Pre-Hispanicos Angeles by DeRangel Hidalgo, Mexican artist. Original work will be read by members. Assignment for May will be made by Dr. Mary B. Dale.

At 1:45 p.m. in the auditorium, Shakespeare Department members in costume will act as hostesses and will be part of the prologue to open the afternoon program, which celebrates the 403rd anniversary of William Shakespeare's birth.

Scenes from Shakespeare's comedies, as well as special songs and dances from the Shakespeare era will be presented by the Los Angeles-Hollywood Shakespeare Festival group, directed by David Bond, with choreography and costumes by John Angelo.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

Ask some complicated questions and the answers are never easy.

I will attempt in this letter to answer some of the implicit and specific questions asked by this paper and many of the citizens of the Pasadena Unified School District of which we here in Sierra Madre are a part.

Those schools or portions of schools which do not meet Field Act specifications have been closed by the Board of Education of the Pasadena Unified School District because the board felt that the district could no longer assume the responsibility of requiring students to attend school in buildings which are legally unsafe. This includes Sierra Madre School.

Sierra Madre School students are now in split session in rented trailer classrooms on Sierra Madre School land. This is a better solution than bussing children to another school, thereby causing two schools to be on split session.

The funds for these trailers came from two sources: 1.) $15,000 saved by not bussing children from closed schools to other schools; 2.) $10,000 saved by limiting the summer school program. The total $25,000 has been used to rent trailer classrooms for those schools in the district which needed them to remain in split session on their own land.

The $5,820,000 bond issue set for June 6, 1967, will provide funds for the demolition, replacement and rehabilitation of those schools not up to Field Act specifications. It also provides funds for the purchase of enough transportable classrooms to return the district to single sessions in September. These transportables would be used during the period of time necessary to complete the work required on the affected schools.

The exact extent of the repairs necessary at Sierra Madre School is not definite at this time. However, the Engineer's Report shows that the building is strong in its ability to take vertical stress but weak in its ability to take lateral stresses as occur in land shifting during an earthquake.

The exact cost estimates on the individual schools affected are not available at this time. However, Dr. Egly indicated that those figures are being worked on now and should be available in about a week.

The bonds, according to the business office at the Board of Education, are usually sold on a 20-year pay off period, because it is the most economical period.

As to the question of what this bond issue will cost us, here I assume the liberty of condensing the exact figures obtained from the business office of the Board of Education. This bond will cost approximately $4.85/year per $5,000 assessed valuation, or 1 1/2 cents per day.

Here I feel compelled to add my own editorial comment. Providing our children with a full day's education, providing a safe place in which to receive that education and doing what is necessary to keep it that way is a bargain at any price.

CORPORATE/INDIVIDUAL INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT...

JOHN I. BOLEN

As a business and tax consultant, operating his own firm for thirty-three years, he has acquired a tremendous reservoir of experience in tax and investment planning as they apply to both individuals and corporations. In his approach to an investment problem, Mr. Bolen considers both present (immediate) and long-term benefits and gains, including family protection and planning for future requirements. While serving an active clientele, he has been a member of the Board of Directors of the Association since 1946 and vice president. He is also a director of several major corporations and a former director of two national banks. As a licensed public accountant in California and Washington, he has been admitted to practice before the Tax Court of the United States, and the United States Treasury Department.

Everyone, whether a member of a corporation or an individual, wants to invest money wisely. Interpretation of the word wisely is a personal one. The investment path we select should be the result of long and careful consideration of all available facts. Investment-cognizant individuals, as well as an increasing number of corporations, estates and fiduciaries place their funds with a FEDERAL savings and loan association because they realize their funds are safe and will earn high dividends until such time as these funds may be needed for other purposes.

You and Your Neighbors

by LYNNE RICHARDSON

We can all take a lesson in budgeting our time from Mrs. Lola Bullock of 42 Windsor Lane. This active woman is a member of the Friendship Club, the Woman's Club, the Senior Citizens and the Pioneers of the Telephone Company. She is looking forward to the Las Vegas trip the Senior Citizens have planned for this spring season. On March 28, she attended a tea for the Pioneers of the Telephone Company (she worked for them for 24 years). They had one of the largest teas ever held . . . 700 members attended! It was at the Castaway in Burbank, and she recommends this scenic spot highly. It had a stunning view of the valley from high in the hills north of Burbank. She really enjoyed herself and is looking forward to the next meeting. Meanwhile she is preparing some of the future programs for the Senior Citizens' meetings. She schedules her household duties so as never to get behind in them . . . now that's a lesson I have to learn!

Marilyn Ashby is a freshman at Brigham Young University in Provo, Utah, and really is enjoying her new experience. Her parents, Robert and Alicebeth Ashby of 3845 Fairmeade Road, miss her, but are glad she enjoys college. Janet, went up during Easter vacation and had a good time visiting her older sister, without having to contend with any snow.

Road, were the guests of my parents, Tommy and Jean Richardson of Arcadia, on March 24. They, along with Dick and Virginia Dennis, of old-styled Mexican tacos and good conversation. Those delicious tacos are made without sparing the hot sauce, which is a special recipe given to my dad. Believe me, they are really hot!

Mary Wertheim is holding down the fort for her parents, who are still in Singapore. She tells me they are planning to return in the near future to visit. Meanwhile, she is attending PCC, notice I didn't say "studying" . . . this girl has spring fever!

Peter and Irene Thill of 59 E. Grand View were one of the many families of Sierra Madre that enjoyed an Easter dinner with their family. They had their children and great-grandchildren over; Mr. and Mrs. Mackie, Mr. and Mrs. Bonnell and family, and their daughter Dolores, who lives with them. This is about the fortieth Easter they have all spent together. Mr. and Mrs. Thill have been residents of Sierra Madre for 42 years she was telling me they really love it.

Jerry and Pat at 11306 E. La Rosa, in Arcadia, recently adopted a little girl, Tracie Lynn. She was born on March 25, weighing 7 pounds, 9 ounces and was 19½ inches long. Tracie Lynn has a little brother, Timmy Todd 2 years old and he's the cutest little thing. I can't really blame his grandmother, Mrs. Ted Stetson, for spoiling him so. After all that's what grandmothers are for.

Doris Paquette, Virginia Rogers, Gertrude Amthor and Marian Germain had a luncheon at a nearby restaurant for Rosemary Wiles. It was her birthday March 29 and her friends picked a perfect spot to take her.

Auxiliary of Dental Society Meets April 11

The Woman's Auxiliary to the San Gabriel Valley Dental Society will hold its regular monthly meeting at a restaurant at 7257 N. Rosemead Blvd., San Gabriel, on Tuesday, April 11, at 11:30 a.m.

Arthur Bietz, Ph.D., will address the group on the subject of "How To Be Happy With the People in Your Life."

Mrs. John G. Murphy, president, of Sierra Madre invites members and guests to the luncheon.

The auxiliary ladies have been invited to join their husbands that evening at the San Gabriel Valley Dental Society dinner meeting to be held at the Santa to be held at a restaurant in El Monte. They will feature a speaker on hypnosis.

After learning how to be happy with people at one meeting and then learning how to hypnotize them at another, the consensus is that it will be a long but rewarding day.

Look for your neighbor in church this Sunday.

As Ives Sees It

AMERICAN LEAGUE
A GLANCE

TWO YEARS AGO Old Hankus put the finger prematurely on the Baltimore Orioles to capture the American League pennant race. Pick 'em in '65 win it in '66. Well last year he tabbed Detroit to win it all, so this may be the year for the Tigers.

HOWEVER, the Orioles look awesome again and there is just no way the crystal ball can come up with any winner in the American loop other than Hank Bauer's world champs.

THE ORIOLES have it all going for them. Young pitchers like McNally, Bunker and Palmer who are still improving. (The Dodgers will agree the Oriole chukkers were pretty good last year.) Power to spare with men like rookie Mike Epstein, Sam Bowens and Woody Held looking for a place to play. Adequate defensively. If Baltimore can sneak a trade with the White Sox for just one more starting hurler, they will be long gone.

SECOND PLACE has a good shot at the top spot based on a potent starting quartet of Kaat, Chance, Grant and Bowswell, plus more than adequate pitching depth. Casey Stengel says pitching is 75 per cent of the game and Walter Alston has proved it. Killebrew, Oliva and Allison provide plenty of punch and the fielding is pretty good.

PUT DOWN THE CALIFORNIA ANGELS for a long-shot pick in the third spot. Bill Rigney's crew is capable of going just as far as the pitching takes them. The outfield is solid, the infield one of the best defensively in the majors, catching could be excellent if Rodgers eevr bounces back, but hurling is the big question mark. Mincher and Hall plus a

V.I.P. Travel

By
Margaret A. Ferguson
Sierra Madre News
Travel Editor

Homeward bound from the "Land Down Under!" And our first stop on Matson's gleaming Monterey or Mariposa is Noumea. The thousands of World War II GI's who prepared in New Caledonia for their northward thrust would barely recognize this cigar-shaped island today.

Noumea, the scenic and go-ahead capital, would seem more at home in the South of France than the South Seas. Store along rue de L'Alma display wines from Algeria and the provinces, perfumes and gowns from Paris, intimate restaurants offer the subtle tastes of French cuisine by candlelight.

If one had longer to spend in this territory, it would be most fascinating to fly to the Isle of Pines, 60 miles from Noumea... an island of such tranquil loveliness that it must some day become one of the leading travel targets of the South Pacific.

It is named for the columnar pines that tower up to 200 feet along the beach sands that are as white and firm as talcum. So clear is the sea at the shore it is sometimes invisible! The sea's greenness darkens continuously all the way out to sheltering reefs. Then, beyond a thin line of silbering surf, it is suddenly cobalt.

The air is always dry and clear on the Isle of Pines and there is an absence of insect life remarkable for the tropics. The island's only hotel is the grass-thatched Kanumera, on an isthmus under the pine with clear, sparkling beaches on both sides. To stay there, if only for one night, is a "must" for any extended South Pacific itinerary.

Next to Suva. It took almost 200 years to "discover" Fiji... It is that spread out. It consists of more than 300 islands scattered through the Southwest Pacific—with Suva, the capital, on Viti Levu. And here the fun of southeast shopping is exemplified in the sprawling City Market. The market offers such colorful wares as cannibal forks, wooden kava bowls and cups, woven mats and baskets, beautifully dyed tapa cloth, as well as Indian saris and filigree jewelry.

The narrow, winding streets of Suva have scores of little shops, which will captivate you for hours.

Niuafo'ou (Tin Can Island) is our next off-port call. An old tradition of the South Pacific was revived when Matson liners again began making an off-port call at this tiny island for "Tin Can Mail." Passengers' mail is dropped to a canoe postman on one voyage, picked up on the next—bearing postage and postmark exclusive to mail from the Mariposa and Monterey.

On to Pago Pago (pronounced Pango Pango). These natives are friendly and generous people, best known for their splendid physique and love of ceremony. When they're not attending feasts and ceremonial dances, Samoans live relatively quiet lives than the Tahitians of Papeete. A three-hour drive along the coast to the village of Tula, fronting on white sand beach, provides an opportunity of observing the daily life of the Samoans both outside and inside their homes, which usually have no walls.

And after four days of peaceful cruising we arrive at our last port of call, Honolulu, the land where you don't run, you walk. You don't frown, you smile. You don't scold, you shrug... and it doesn't cost you a cent. Try this experiment: when you buy a newspaper, say "Aloha," no matter how silly it sounds. See what happens. Every flower lei seller, every hula girl, every swimmer on a surfboard, every barefoot schoolboy, is part of old Hawaii. Even you will use the same directions for traveling the natives used 1000 years ago... Makai means toward the ocean, towards the mountains is mauka, which is always form the center of each island.

And when you sail away makai, be sure to follow the age-old tradition of tossing your lei into the sea. If it floats back across the reef, you will someday return to this earthly paradise at the end of a traveler's dream.

'Ouch' Mr. Taxpayer

County Employees Ask For $50 Million Pay Increase

The 33,000-member Los Angeles County Employees Association this week called for a record $50 million in pay increases and fringe benefits for all 50,000 County employees, and an end to the "pay lag" of 6 to 18 months behind prevailing wages and benefits paid by private industry.

LACEA General Manager E. C. Holmes told newsmen: "For too many years the County's procedures in setting wages have literally violated the law. They have done so by avoiding or ignoring real compliance with the 'prevailing wage' provisions placed in the County Charter by the public to ensure 'like pay for like work'."

Holmes further stated: "The curious methods used in the past by the County have deprived its employees of more than $62 million in legally deserved pay raises during the past six years alone. Legal hurdles made it difficult to recover these losses retroactively. Our present $50 million demands do not include recovery of these past losses. Our package is based solely on what will be required in 1967 to meet Charter requirements and bring County employees up to a comparable position with their counterparts in private industry."

LACEA's demands, documented by detailed charts and statistics, include: Across-the-board pay increases ranging from a minimum of 8 1/4% to 22%.

Premium pay for overtime at the rate of time and a half.

A 100% employer-paid health plan instead of the present $8 per month. A 50% cost-of-living increase for retired employees. Holmes revealed that this year's salary demands are based on entirely new computer-age techniques developed by a highly-skilled task force. As he put it: "LACEA staff teams of wage analysts, statisticians, attorneys and computer specialists have prepared an overwhelmingly documented case, employing techniques never before seen in County wage setting. Compiling, evaluating and applying mountains of data on wages and fringe benefits has been accomplished by this newly-devised task-force approach with the aid of the Association's new electronic data processing equipment."

Holmes added: "It is still too early to tell whether the County's recent establishment of a Personnel Director indicates a realistic willingness to avoid the abuses of prior years in the wage-setting system. Our negotiations with Personnel Director Gordon Nesvig and his staff suggest they desire to eliminate major causes of public employee unrest. But the key question is: Will they be given the necessary authority to negotiate realistic solutions?"

In seeking salary increases, LACEA submitted statistical evidence that all employees earning $440-$545 are entitled to at least 11% raises, while those in the $452-$60 and higher ranges should get at least 8 1/4%. LACEA is asking for additional increases in certain individual classifications to correct inequities that call for increases beyond 11%.

Holmes pointed out that the County has historically based its concept of prevailing wages on a Joint Salary Survey taken at the beginning of each calendar year. This salary standard becomes effective for County employees six months later—on July 1—and is still in effect the following year, creating a "salary time lag" of up to 18 months behind private industry.

In his words: "County pay in effect lag up to 18 months behind the real prevailing wage in private industry. The resulting loss of income by County employees is obvious, and this time-lag factor must be compensated. In no other way is it possible to alter the present system under which employees of Los Angeles County subsidize County government to the extent of millions of dollars a year."

You and Your Neighbor

by LYNNE RICHARDSON

Susan Germain had a ball in San Francisco when she attended a five day tour of the city and its surrounding campuses with the senior class from Alverno. They bused up and back and stayed at the Retreat House in Menlo Park during their visit. They saw Stanford, Notre Dame, Santa Clara and University of San Francisco, to name a few. They went to Fisherman's Wharf, China Town, Redwood City, and Ghirardelli Square. After a lot of fun and very little sleep these happy senior girls have a better idea of what they want from a college, besides good looking college men.

Phyllis and Ted Underwood of 3765 Fairmeade Road enjoyed an Easter vacation in Bakerfield. They went up to visit Mr. Underwood's daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Reddin. They took their daughter Debbie along. Little Debbie just turned five, she celebrated her birthday April 4. Her Mom tells me she attend Sierra Madre Nursery School and is crazy about it.

If any of you are interested in buying a pedigree Great Dane pup you may have your chance real soon! Walter and Aurora Feaser of 382 Sycamore have a brindled colored Great Dane female that is expected to have puppies real soon, if she hasn't already. Athena is her name and this will be her second litter; last time she had 13 puppies.

Mrs. Sarah Hansen, wife of Carl Hansen of Hansen's Fords, certainly has a talent for gardening. When they moved to the house they live in now, Mrs. Hansen decided to take along her camellias and azaleas. She successfully transplanted them during the season when they aren't supposed to be moved, late summer. Today they are blooming abundantly after 16 years at 30 E. Bonita. In this beautiful garden there grows: camellias, azaleas, roses (which haven't bloomed yet) and orchids, which are blooming very well. Mrs. Hansen says you just need patience. You need more than that, you need talent and love, and that little lady has both!

The Andersons of 324 Foothill went to the Anza Barrogo Desert for the weekend of March 24-26. The whole family, Russ and Madeline, Laurie 6, Gary 8 and Tim 11, enjoyed driving and hiking around the desert. Of course I won't mention that the truck got stuck on their way to the Caliente Mines and while there Madeline got her foot stuck and had to call for help. What fun would vacations be if everything went normally! They visited Carlsbad prior to this trip to see Russ' mother, who was in the process of moving and welcomed their help. Little Laurie had her sixth birthday March 30; she told her mom she can't wait to be seven.

Neal and Valerie Goodwin, of 58 E. Laurel, are busy these days caring for their new baby, Darren Ray. He is three months old now, born at St. Luke Hospital. They have Darrens' older brother to keep them busy too, Jeffery who is 2½ years old. There's nothing like chasing after a couple of wee ones to keep physically fit.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

For once, I am actually saving stamps! This letter comes to you with both my profound thanks and as a plea for even greater help in telling the Heart Association story.

You have been very generous in your handling of our Heart stories — particularly in the fields of research and new findings in the fight against cardiovascular disease and the Heart Association is deeply grateful to you. As a matter of fact, I sometimes wonder if one of our greatest problems in work for Heart is not that there is danger of a large gap between what your readers legitimately come to believe has been accomplished by Heart research and what they can actually expect to be applied in the treatment of cardiovascular disease. As is true in so many areas today, research is way ahead of application. I can only assure you that both the volunteers and staff are doing all possible to close the gap as quickly and effectively as we can within the limitations we must accept.

This, then, brings me to a plea for even further help. We can't hope to undertake the scope of projects indicated by research results without a great deal of community-oriented publicity. Often almost the total volunteer recruitment effort is dependent upon the coverage we receive in your paper.

As you know, a major health agency, like Heart, cannot participate in United fund drives — we've tried many communities. It doesn't work. By our very nature we must be free to assign funds to research projects which may — or may not — be limited to this area. Our research commitment is such that we must maintain a primary budget responsibility to the American Heart Association. And, under no circumstances, could we relinquish budgetary control to any organization not primarily dedicated to the eradication of cardiovascular disease. At the same time, we have increasing obligations to undertake more community service, public and professional education programs. Present research indicates that a very large amount of heart disease is preventable.

While we feel that fund raising activities in themselves merit your mention, let me assure you that we make every effort to involve every volunteer recruited for any purpose in our expanding programs in other areas.

As you know, one line of recognition in your newspaper is worth a thousand words of thanks from us. If there is any means by which we can serve your needs more efficiently, I'd like very much to hear from you. If, for instance, you would like local volunteer stories directed to a particular individual please let me know. We know, of course, that the demands on you for coverage of local volunteer efforts by the many organizations you so magnanimously help thereby is frequently less than hard news.

But please be assured that the Heart Association is deeply grateful for the support you give us at all levels of coverage and particularly anxious to do all we can to make the handling of stories covering local volunteer activities at attractive as possible to you.

Mildred Younger
Chairman, Public Relations Committee
Los Angeles County Heart Association

The race will start at 11 a.m. and will end at approximately 1 p.m.

On Sunday, April 23 there will be a complete Search and Rescue demonstration in Arcadia Wilderness Park. This will begin at 11 a.m. and end at 1 p.m.

Financial safety comes in all shapes and sizes. There are safe investments and risky investments—and ones that are in between. Depending upon how much risk you want to take, your money can be invested in a variety of ways.

Your savings, however, are another thing. This is money you do not want to risk—no matter how safe the investment appears. This is money you want to be able to count on at all times and under all conditions. And when you want your money that safe and that available—you want it in the bank.

Pony League Spring Season L.A. Taxes Opens Saturday, April 29 Indicate

Spring training began last week for the four Pony League teams with managers working hard to get their teams in shape for the season which opens April 29. Pony games will be played this year at the Sierra Mesa School field, every Wednesday and Thursday at 5:30 p.m. and on Saturday at 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. First game of the season on May 3, will see the Pirates playing the Reds.

Letters To The Editor . . .

Dear Editor:

Our sincere and heartfelt thanks for all you have done to support me for appointment to the Federal Maritime Commission.

That the President has now appointed someone else is secondary; what really counts with us is the wonderful showing of confidence and support from all over the United States. That a long career dedicated sincerely to doing the best possible job in the fairest and most honorable manner has merited such an accolade is its own reward.

Naturally we would have liked to have the appointment, and would have added to our record of accomplishment if it had come about. While I am disappointed that the post did not go to someone from the Pacific Coast, personally the disappointment is not unalloyed. It would not be easy to leave our family and friends in Southern California — the "20 Mules" — and all such associations, even temporarily. Now, Marion and I can settle down to peddling Borax, spoiling our new grandchildren, and maybe even time for a little golf — and the courses here are played the year round!

To Mr. Fansee our congratulations and sincere good wishes. F.M.C. has had, and continues to have, a big task in carrying out the mandates of the Shipping Act, as amended, (and which amendments I helped to formulate) and which have such a bearing on our international trade. We are still vitally interested in and working for expansion of World Trade; and we wish all the commissioners and staff the very best, in their part of it.

Again, thank you!
—TED STETSON

L.A. Taxes Indicate Good Record

Richard Nevins, a state property tax official, reported recently that Los Angeles County Assessor Phillip E. Watson has reached a "high degree of consistency" in achieving his goal of assessing all categories of property at 25 per cent of market value.

Nevins, member of the State Board of Equalization which guides assessors, found Watson had a "high degree of equality" based upon the state board's independent appraisals of residential, industrial and commercial properties chosen at random.

The board's 1964 survey showed that Watson's percentage of full value for individual residential properties varied only 12 per cent (coefficient of dispersion), or the average, from the board-found average for all residential properties. Nevins said, "Nationwide experience indicates that a variation of less than 20 per cent for this type of property is a good record and that a 12 per cent variation is outstanding."

"According to the State Board of Equalization's computations, the coefficient of dispersion for industrial properties in Los Angeles County was only 14 per cent," Nevins continued. "Commercial properties were found to have a 20 per cent variation."

"A coefficient of dispersion of less than 10 per cent is virtually unobtainable, even for the most common types of property, because of differences of opinion between state and county appraisers and the vast number of properties that must be assessed each year in Los Angeles County," Nevins concluded.

The board's sample appraisals are part of its effort to achieve uniform assessment of property for taxes throughout the state. Its sample surveys are taken in each county every three years. Los Angeles is scheduled to be surveyed again in 1968.

As Ives Sees It

healthy Reichardt add much needed punch and Fregosi could be the spark that would lift the Halos to the third place heights, IF the pitching holds up.

DETROIT has a new manager, Mayo Smith, who has not been able to produce a winner in two other major league shots. John Sain is a great pitching coach who could mold the Tiger staff into a pennant contender. Horton, Northrup and Kalline back by Stanbury and Brown may be the best outfield in the league. Good bench, plenty of power.

BIG JOE ADCKOCK gets his first managerial fling with the Cleveland and he too must contend with some lame but potentially fine arms. Sam McDowell's return to form could key the Injuns toward the top. The potential is there for a shot at first if Colavito and Wagner can get some timely hits and the defense improves.

PUT THE WHITE SOX down for sixth place but don't count them out of the hunt. Stanky has one of the top mound staffs in the business but lack of hitting is a huge drawback. Should Pete Ward bounce back from a disastrous year and Ron Hanson recover from back woes, the Chisox could battle for all the marbles.

KANSAS CITY, NEW YORK, BOSTON AND WASHINGTON figure to fight it out for the bottom four spots in the standings. The Athletics have fine young pitchers but a terrible outfield and virtually no punch. The Yankees lost Maris, Richardson and Boyer, have huge infield holes to fill and are a long way from the awesome Bombers of old.

DICK WILLIAMS will attempt to pull Boston out of the doldrums with a get tough attitude that might work. Pitching is his problem and there isn't a real stopper on the staff, but the outfield is excellent and the infield potentially good. WASHINGTON climbed to eighth last year which was definitely a credit to Gil Hodges. After Richert and Oregta the pitching is not unless Pascual bounce's back.

OLD HANKUS VISUALIZES a final finish that lows like this: 1. Baltimore, 2. Minnesota, 3. California, 4.

Detroit, 5. Cleveland, 6. Chicago, 7. Kansas City, 8. New York, 9. Boston, 10. Washington.

FRANK ROBINSON will repeat as MVP and homer leader but Carl Yastrzemski will bet the batting title with a .326 average and Kill-er Killebrew will drive in 125 runs. Dean Chance, Sam McDowell, Marcelino Lopez and Mickey Lolich will all win 20 games. Reggie Smith of Boston will get the top rookie award and Tommy Agee will lead in stolen bases.

unless you are at Home Savings you are not receiving all this:

- 1. MAXIMUM PROTECTION. Maintaining a perfect safety record since 1889, Home Savings today has resources far above those of any other association in the nation. Assets are now over Two Billion, Two Hundred and Fifty Million Dollars. Actual Dollar Reserves are over 100 times the average. What is equally important, Home is the most efficient large financial institution...of any kind... in America.
- 2. MAXIMUM INSURANCE. Accounts at Home are insured to $15,000 by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, a permanent agency of the United States Government.
- 3. MAXIMUM INTEREST. You earn 5 1/4 %, current annual rate, the highest interest in the nation on convenient and accessible pass-book accounts. With Daily Compounding, your potential earnings are 5.39 %, if this rate and your account are maintained for a year. Some others now match this rate... but no one pays more... most associations in the nation pay less... banks pay only 4 % on the same type of accounts.
- 4. PORTAL-TO-PORTAL PAY. You earn interest from the actual day received, paid at the end of the quarter. You earn interest to the actual date of withdrawal on funds in your account for a period of three months or more (as required by law) providing the account remains open to the end of the quarter.
- 5. UNLIMITED LOAN FUNDS. Home always has money available for loans on well-located, well-maintained residential real estate.
- 6. MAXIMUM SERVICE. Home has more Southern California offices to serve you than any other association.
- 7. plus
YOU GROW WITH HOME. You succeed with success. During 1966, while financial institutions all over the nation were having "tight money" problems, Home Savings had its greatest growth in history, with 376,417 new savers and $304,878,972.51 in new savings. At present Home guards 90,023 accounts of $10,000 or more (an increase of 21,023 during 1966), with individual accounts to a million dollars.

City Council Gives Approval To Park Projects

In addition to having a tentative approval to change the building at 242 W. Sierra Madre Blvd. into a teen center the City Council, at its last meeting also authorized two other actions.

The Commission was authorized to spend $3500 to repair portion of the Park House in Memorial Park to bring it up to standard for community use. New glass, with reinforcing wire, will be installed, a new roof put on and panic hardware installed on all doors. It was pointed out that every attempt would be made to keep its historic exterior appearance intact.

This building is used by the Senior Citizens as a meeting hall, as well as by several other groups. The Council also granted permission for the Parks and Recreation Department to purchase picnic tables and etc. for the Bailey Canyon Park area.

In line with other park work, Council authorized a contract for landscape plans for Sierra Vista Park with the low bidder, Mayer, Matthews and Riddle for $1450.

Abandoned Water Tunnel To Be Filled By City

In the process of doing some research work it was found that a section of abandoned water tunnel was still in existence and could be construed as a hazard.

Assistant City Engineer Larry Adams reported to the Council the finding of this tunnel and asked for a policy recommendation covering the filling-in of the tunnel and pipe in the area immediately north of Carter and Baldwin, approximately along the property lines of property owned by Mel Bowman and C. G. Willis.

The cost for the filling-in was estimated at about $500 and the Council ordered the work done at city expense since this was on a city easement and was part of the facilities originally purchased by the city in 1906.

Research showed that several trestles that carried the water line were removed around 1938 to 1940 when they became attractive nuisances. The water line itself was abandoned, apparently, around 1926.

Second Tax Installment Now Due

Harold J. Ostly, Los Angeles County Tax Collector, stated that there are still unpaid real estate taxes amounting to over $490,000. These taxes are now due and payable and must be paid by April 10, to avoid payment of the 6 per cent penalty.

If you have not received your tax bill or by chance have misplaced it, call MA 5-3611, extension 64541 to obtain a bill so that your taxes will be paid on or before April 10. Failure to receive a tax bill does not relieve the property owner of the payment of penalty if the taxes become delinquent. If a bank or loan company pays your taxes, you need not make a request.

Ostly announced that the majority of tax delinquencies occur during the first year of ownership of property. If you are a new owner, you can determine what taxes are paid by checking your escrow papers. Be sure you understand the following three important points

Resignations!

"I resign" is the prerogative of every employee, and to balance the scales it is the prerogative of any employer to state, "You are through." For either to make this statement is varied and far-flung, but when either makes this statement, something is definitely wrong. It could be that the employee has been offered a higher paying job, but most often it is his dissatisfaction that has caused him to seek a better job, the same as the employer would dismiss him through dissatisfaction. It can happen but very seldom that an employee, liking his job, his employer, his associates, will accept another offer, and by the same token, it is seldom that an employer will dismiss an employee because he has found a better man, when the present employee is doing his job.

Now, why has the City of Sierra Madre had five major resignations of Department Heads in the past 10 months, to say nothing about the great number of resignations in the Police Department, together with several secretaries and clerical employees?

I am sure it is not because they have an old building to work in; although I do know that it was a great disappointment to our past Chief of Police Bale that he could not set up the working department that he felt was necessary for our city. Employees can tolerate a great deal in connection with their work, if they are happy, and they feel that all concerned realize the inadequacies, but there just simply is nothing to be done about it.

I feel that there has been an average degree of compatibility among the employees. I cannot see that resignations of this type would come from non-cooperation. Department Heads generally have a way of working out these problems.

I do not believe salaries have been the point of contention. Sierra Madre may be a little behind in the salary schedule of similar surrounding cities, but not enough but what through agreeable working conditions they would overlook the small discrepancies, this being more prevalent in Department Heads rather than the run of the mill employees.

I am sure it is not the workload that has caused these Department Heads to tender their resignations. They know when they apply for a job such as those offered by a city, that they will on many occasions burn the midnight oil and work overtime without compensation to keep the ship afloat.

So, we have just about analyzed all of the reasons that we can think of, except one that is very prevalent on our mind.

Progress, or the lack of it, has killed more great men than anything else, and I am very much afraid that this is the one word that has caused five good Department Heads to move on.

There are very few of us who want to "stagnate." When we reach Department Head, or managerial status, we are generally fired with ambition and our greatest aim in life is progress—this is only human nature.

Larry Bevington, former City Administrator; Bert Embree, Fire Marshal; James Bale, Chief of Police; Richard Dodge, Director of Parks and Recreation, and Willie Lockman, City Engineer—all of these men have been backed into a corner where progress in their professions with the City of Sierra Madre was almost impossible.

I am certain that I do not have to tell you the story of each individual man. It has been common knowledge over the past ten months that with each man there has come a great disappointment in his desire to progress, to give his full ability to the job that he was charged to do. It is sad, indeed sad, there has not been a one of these men, who after his resignation from the City of Sierra Madre, has not gone forward and showed great "Progress." The last three have not shown us as yet, but with the opportunities that have been offered them, and knowing these men well, I know that they will go to great heights in their new endeavors.

Now, the way I look at things, I find that we actually have less than ten Department Heads on our City Staff, and we have lost five of them through resignation. We have replaced the City Administrator, so now we are down to four or five. We are sliding backwards so fast that soon we will back to the 1958 period of having one man doing all of the work and accomplishing very little.

The matter of resignations goes even deeper than with the paid city employees. Some of the commissions have seen a continuing number of members refusing re-appointment when their term has expired, during the past few months, especially the Parks and Recreation group. Perhaps some were legitimately due to the pressure of business, or other personal interests, but there is room for much concern when these "wholesale" resignations seem to be popping up almost at every turn. We can ill afford to become a training ground for other cities, by having our paid employees leave us just about the time they are reaching possibly the peak of their potential. The same with the volunteer commissioners, just about the time they are really becoming familiar with all facets of the job to which they are appointed, something is happening that causes them to beg off, and we lose another good man.

One resignation could be a necessity, two a coincidence, three an accident, but when they continue on and on, it is time that we show some deep concern, and try to ferret out the truth behind them. There has to be much more to this than meets the eye.

I could go on and on with this subject, for you see I am "prejudiced." So I will leave you with the above thoughts for your consideration, and your thinking. I am sure it will not take you long to pinpoint the situation. If it does, ask a few questions from your Councilmen or any of the last of the Department Heads. I am sure you will come to a conclusion.

FREEDOM AT ANY PRICE

by DR. HENRY V. WITTY

Management of this newspaper is not capable of answering questions to this column; however letters to the editor will be published.

Do you remember the youngster in the Hans Christian Anderson story? The crowds along the parade route knew (for hadn't they been told?) that the emperor was clothed in garments of invisible cloth and everybody thought the royal personage was covered in exquisite fashion. Everybody, that is, except one little child who looked and looked and then blurted out: "The emperor is naked." And, as you remember, the emperor was!

Everybody knows the social security trust fund is fluid and secure to meet all present retirement commitments. Everybody knows billions upon billions have been poured into its coffers by employees as well as employers in the form of social security tax! Everybody knows the future of social security is rosy and economically sound, that is, except Congressman James B. Utt who, in his Washington Report of February 15th, tells us: "The Secretary of the Treasury, in testifying before our committee, said that if we did not raise the debt limit, he would not be able to send out social security checks for the month of March. This may be a rude awakening to twenty million recipients of social security to find that the so-called trust fund does not even exist; outside of $4 billion in marketable securities, the balance is all in the form of IOU's signed by the federal government, which in turn must tax again or borrow the money necessary to redeem these IOU's."

Everybody knows the National Council of Churches (NCC) is a dominant religious power representing 40 million American church members of various protestant denominations. Everybody knows its dedicated purpose is to promote Christian doctrine, improve the moral fiber of our nation, and represent a powerful deterrent to any threat to Christianity! Everybody, that is, except those who take the time and effort to ferret out the truth about the controlling clique of the National Council of Churches. The National Council of Churches in the United States, according to the records, is working hard for the same policies that the Communists are working for, namely: destruction of all committees investigating Communism, an increase in foreign aid to Communist countries, a ban on nuclear testing, abolishment of security laws and loyalty oaths, total "peaceful coexistence" with total disarmament, recognition of Christianity's worst enemy (Red China) and the entrance of this enemy as a member of the United Nations organization.

Furthermore, this pseudo-Christian organization wants no part of prayer in the schools. The N.C.C. opposed the Dirksen amendment. It is quite evident that the N.C.C. does not represent the thinking of the majority of its members. Only a very small minority of protestant church members would agree with the above mentioned official policy positions of the National Council of Churches. Yet, the N.C.C. consistently claims that it speaks for its 40 million protestant members.

Everybody knows that you spell fish—F-I-S-H. Everybody, that is, except an acquaintance of this writer who persist in spelling it GHOTI. He justifies his odd spelling thusly: GH=F as in rouGH, O=I as in wOm-en, TI=SH as in moTion. Which only goes to show that there can be a vast difference of opinion—even among GHOTI!

—CT—

I have many times envied the man who was in the U. S. Army to make it his career. To me it always spelled out the word "security." He never had to worry about a place to sleep or eat. His only worry was when the 20-25-30 year hitch was up and he retired, and being thrown out into a world that he had forgotten, now come to me the words "Ultimate security," and he is the man serving a life term in a federal penitentiary. Isn't that a gruesome thought? . . .

—CT—

Well, I have just about had it for the day, so will close up this column with a bit of wisdom . . . "Necessity may be the mother of invention, but progress is the parent of taxation!" . . . This I guarantee you, I hope, I hope, I hope.
